How You Can Quickly Remove Hairy Growths
(Aids to Beauty.)

A well-known beauty specialist advises this treatment for the removal of hair from the face. Mix into a paste some powdered talc and water, apply to hairy surface and after about two minutes rub off with skin and every trace of hair has vanished.
This method is quick and entirely safe.
To avoid disappointment, however, it is well to make certain you get genuine Talc.—Adv.

This Skin Peeler All the Rage in Society

There is a growing tendency among women of culture and fashion to pay more attention to hygienic means of preserving their charms.
The advent of mercurials was doubtless largely responsible for this. This remarkable substance produces complexion so natural in appearance, so magnetically beautiful, artificial complexions are no longer desired. Instead of "doctoring" an offensive skin, the skin is peeled off. The wax peels the skin so gradually, in such fine particles, no discomfort is experienced. The fresher, younger skin beneath, wholly in evidence within a week or two, is lily white, satiny soft and smooth. It's not a patched-over complexion, but a brand new one. That's why mercurials wax has become such a rage among society folk. The wax is put on nights like cold cream and washed off mornings. All druggists have it; one ounce will do.
Another hygienic treatment now much in favor is one to remove wrinkles, made by dissolving a tea-spoonful of powdered salicylic acid in a wash lotion it "acts like magic."—Adv.

TODAY'S BEAUTY HINT

It is not necessary to shampoo quite so frequently if your hair is properly cleansed each time by use of a really good shampoo. The easiest to use and quickest drying shampoo that we can recommend to our readers may be prepared very cheaply by dissolving a teaspoonful of canthrox, obtained from your druggist, in a cup of hot water.
This rubbed into the scalp creates a thick lather, soothing and cooling in its action, as well as beneficial to scalp and hair. After rinsing, the scalp is fresh and clean, while the hair dries quickly and evenly, developing a bright luster and a soft fluffiness that makes it seem very heavy.—Adv.

Our Annual May Sale of Manufacturers' Sample Undermuslins

At Savings Ranging From 1/4 to Nearly 1/2

This is a sale that we hold every year, and consequently it is well known—the quality of the garments and the character of the savings enjoy a wide appreciation by our patrons.

The fashions of Undermuslins have changed greatly for spring; everything is full frilled, fluffy and beautiful. It is a season especially favorable to attractive underwear, and this that we offer is the very newest and best.

The prices are exceedingly low—reductions of one-fourth to nearly one-half—and this is a fact in the face of conditions which would warrant the conclusion that they would be just the opposite.
However, our close co-operation with the manufacturers has enabled us to secure our usual good collection at the same exceptional prices as of old.

He suddenly "lost" the coin, the counterfeiters.

The blow came in Sacramento. Cost-anzo was shadowing Zeffero, who was doubling back and forth through the streets after passing counterfeit dollars.
He suddenly "lost" the coin, the Panama hat he was wearing, and the counterfeiters.

The claimant was the counterfeit.

cuffs clicked.

that the secretary was bringing back barrator Gerard's conference with the Kaiser.

Some suggestions were that information given Gerard included Germany's views on peace, but Grew would not discuss his mission in any way.

METHODISTS RETAIN MISSIONARY BISHOPS

Conference in Uproar While Defeating Proposal to Abolish the Office.

SARATOGA, N. Y., May 23.—The conservatives have scored heavily in the Methodist conference.

A resolution was introduced by former Governor Hanly of Indiana, and signed by a dozen others, requesting the abolition of the office of missionary bishop.

If it had been adopted, the resolution would have automatically raised to the rank of bishop all of the present missionary bishops, and created a new bishop with full powers in Europe, instead of two missionary bishops.

After a debate, which was the liveliest of the session, the proposal was badly defeated.

In the heat of debate several assertions were made which later were retracted at the demand of other delegates.

As soon as the proposition was defeated the conference proceeded to the election of two missionary bishops for Africa, one to be a negro. No decision was reached for either on the first ballot, but for negro bishop of Liberia, A.
P. Camphor, of Alabama, had such a majority on the first ballot that competitors withdrew and he will be elected on the second ballot today.

Eben S. Johnson, of Sioux City, Iowa; J. E. Crother, department secretary of the board of foreign missions, New York, and Albert K. Smith, president of Ohio Northern College, Ada, Ohio, were closely bunched for the other office.

The conference unanimously adopted a resolution which gives the board of bishops power to convene the body in session at any time after the present meeting ends.

This is done for the purpose of permitting a session in 1918, if the bishops decide it is advisable, to take action on a proposal, which will be submitted to the Southern church at the same time, providing terms of union between the churches.

William J. Bryan delivered a temperance address, in which he advocated woman suffrage as a means of fighting the saloon.

WILSON MAY REVIEW LABOR PARADE HERE

Federation Committee Invites President to Take Part in Exercises July Fourth.

One of the biggest labor parades ever held in the United States will be staged here on the morning of July 4 on the occasion of the dedication of the new headquarters building of the American Federation of Labor, at Ninth street and Massachusetts avenue northwest.

President Wilson, who has been asked to review the parade and make an address at the dedicatory exercises, told a committee which presented the invitation today that he felt "highly complimented" and would gladly take part if possible.

The committee consisted of Samuel Gompers, president of the federation; Frank Morrison, secretary, and Secretary of Labor William E. Wilson.

The President was told that labor delegations from all parts of the United States will take part in the parade, which will include many novel features.
If the President finds it possible to attend he probably will have with him on the reviewing stand Mrs. Wilson and all the members of his Cabinet.

The details of the parade are now being worked out by a committee of the federation.

many years this time-tried remedy has been used and strongly endorsed by experienced mothers, for it is the one safe, dependable remedy that penetrates to relieve all strain on
